ANNOUNCEMENTS

BRED THEATRE

"The Little Minister," The Three Reel Scotch Feature Today.

The world today is ringing with the reverberations of the success of "The Little Minister," the foremost delineator of the American stage, in his greatest success, "The Little Minister." The Bred Theatre has engaged this immensely popular feature picture for its patrons. It will be shown today and tomorrow only, and not since the delightful Scotch comedy, "And Lang Syne," was seen at the Bred, has there been offered such an attraction.

It is in three reels, and tells of a young Scotch minister who falls in love with a gypsy girl. The ban of the "Kirk," and the condemnation of the austere town folks intervenes as a barrier to their marriage. Unexpected circumstances of a startling nature, happen, and their prejudice and intolerance are removed. Of course love conquers. The whole picture is a delightful drama of the heather fields, and "Babbie," is played by Miss Clara Kimball Young, one of the handsomest and most talented actresses on the Viagraph cast. Tom Moore and Alice Joyce are seen in "A Business Buccaneer," and there is a strong story of the sea, entitled "Pirate Gold," by the Biograph company.

LAST CONCERT OF SERIES.

Will Be Given in Slater Memorial Hall, Wednesday, Feb. 12.

The last concert in the Slater Memorial hall musical course will take place Wednesday evening, Feb. 12, when the New York symphony orchestra of 50 pieces, Walter Damrosch, conductor, and Alexander Sauerbrey, as solo violinist, will be the attraction. This will be the first appearance of this celebrated orchestra in Norwich. In fact it is the first time a great many years that the music lovers, living hearabouts, have had an opportunity to hear an orchestra of the size and high character of this organization without the expense of a trip to one of the nearby metropolitan cities. If one will stop and consider a moment they will understand why these concerts are so infrequent. In the first place there are 50 musicians all finished artists, whose traveling expenses are services must be paid for. And in addition there is a solo violinist of established reputation and that peerless conductor, Walter Damrosch, making altogether, owing to the number and high character of its members, one of the most expensive musical organizations that could be engaged. It would seem as though no student of music, or person musically inclined, could afford to miss this great event, as to see and hear this celebrated orchestra is fully equal from an educational standpoint to a dozen lessons. Moreover, it is an opportunity that only comes once in a generation.

Seats for the concert by the New York Symphony orchestra are now on sale at Geo. A. Davis, 24 State. Admission $2.50, all seats reserved.

Mrs. A. T. Smith Entertained.
An enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mrs. Alfred Thornton Smith, in Preston, Saturday evening, when she entertained a few of her friends with an evening at cards. The table decorations were pink and green, while the favors were so infrequent. The character that they caused a great deal of merriment. Indeed the whole affair was delightful, proving Mrs. Smith to be a most charming hostess. Miss Annie McLinton received the first prize. Mr. Frederick Zundel carried off the honors for the gentlemen, while Mr. Walter McLinton and Mrs. Frederick Zundel were awarded consolation trophies.
